Course Description

This course will cover all the basics of human nutrition and to the relationships between nutrition, health, and disease prevention. Students will be expected to integrate what they will learn about nutrition with their knowledge of chemistry and physiology.

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

Student Learning Objectives

1. Conduct a thorough nutritional analysis
2. Design an effective nutritional program based on this analysis
3. Make productive and effective linkages between such a nutritional program and the resultant components related to health and disease prevention.
4. Use this experience as a way to prepare to pass a nationally-recognize certification in nutrition or as a Well Coach.

Teaching Strategies

Lecture, DVDs, handouts, small group work, written assignments, class presentation and discussion, power points, current media news.

Assignments & Assessment Methods:

Assignment	Total Points
Discussions: 5 at 15 points each	75
Assignments: 4 at 15 points each, 1 at 10 points, and 1 at 25 points	95
Exams: 3 at 80 points each	240

Final: 1 at 150 points	150
Total	560

Methods of Evaluation

Assignments are graded in regard to completeness, accuracy, quality (including English grammar, spelling and composition skills, thoroughness and neatness), compliance with guidelines and promptness. Late assignments will be deducted 10% for 3 days, with no late assignments accepted after that time.

Exams consist of multiple choice questions in which the student applies knowledge, analysis, and critical thinking skills. There are 3 scheduled unit tests and one final. Unit tests are 80 points each and the final 150 points. NOTIFICATION OF ABSENCE MUST BE MADE TO THE INSTRUCTOR PRIOR TO AN EXAM. Make-up examinations must be taken on the assigned day. The test may be administered via an essay or multiple choice formats. The University's Code of Academic Integrity will be strictly enforced as listed in the university catalog.

Course Policies:

Late Policy & Due Date Extensions: Acceptance of work submitted past the due date or requests of due date extensions may be considered in the event of unforeseen, documentable events. Examples of such events include medical emergencies, documentable technical issues, death of a loved one, etc. However, simply forgetting, time zone differences, going on vacation, or not performing a well as intended are not acceptable excuses.

Plagiarism Statement: Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of another as your own without giving credit to the source author. This also includes taking a paper found online and submitting it as one's own paper and/or cutting and pasting from a website and submitting it as your work product.

Plagiarism is defined in detail in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities under Section 8: Academic Conduct Procedures, as well as an extended description of academic dishonesty:

Accommodation/Accessibility Statement: Marian University, through policy and practice, is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. If you experience, or anticipate experiencing, barriers to your education due to a disability please contact the Personalized Learning Center by emailing plc@marian.edu or calling 317.955.6540 to start a conversation.

Although a student may request an accommodation at any time, it is best to initiate the accommodation process as early as possible as it may take time to complete the interactive process and accommodations will not be implemented retroactively. If a reasonable accommodation is determined, a Course Accommodation Letter will be created at the Personalized Learning Center for the student to provide to their faculty members with information related to their accommodations. Faculty will not set up disability-related accommodations without a current semester Course Accommodation Letter.

Faculty, Staff or Student questions or concerns regarding the accommodation process can be sent to plc@marian.edu or Mandie Greiwe, agreiwe@marian.edu, Director of the Personalized Learning Center.
